LOCALS BREAK THEIR HOODOO

Defeat Wellsville in Brilliant Game by a Score of One to Nothing.

CONTEST PROVES DUEL BETWEEN STAR PITCHERS

Great Work in the Box and Excellent Support Makes a Clean Fight.

Special to The Tribune.
BRIGHAM CITY, Sept. 7.—Salt Lake defeated Wellsville here today in the most exciting game ever witnessed here by a score of 1 to 0. The game was a pitchers' duel throughout, between Heusser of Salt Lake and Morgan of Wellsville. Only three hits were secured off Morgan and four off Heusser. Several times during the game a man of one side or the other reached third base with no one out, but the excellent pitching and superb support retied the side without a score.

Salt Lake won the game in the seventh inning. With one man out, Settle drove a long one to left field. After a hard run Allen got his hands on the ball, but failed to hold it. Settle reached second on the muff and stole third, scoring on Donovan's long fly to center field. Both teams played big league ball in the field. C. Maughan, at second base, made the sensational catch of the day, converting a hard line drive of Donovan's with one hand.

The ball game was a big feature of the peach day celebration at Brigham City, and 5000 people saw the game. Tomorrow the Salt Lake team goes to Garland to play the first team of that city.

Intermountain Doubles Championship in Ladies' Tennis Tournament Is Decided

LOGAN AGGIES ARE DETERMINED TO WIN

Farmers Believe That This Year They Can Beat the University Team.

"Now or never" is the watchword. Logan Aggies determined to beat the U. of U. this fall. On account of the one-year rule which the "U" established by joining the Rocky mountain conference with the Colorado schools, the farmers at Logan expect a sure victory over the university this fall.

The new rule provides that a student, in order to be eligible to represent the university in athletics, must have attended the school the previous year and have completed two-thirds or at least ten hours of the work for which he was registered.

Out of last year's team the "U" will lose "Tillie" Olson, captain and tackle; Jack Leell, fullback; Milton Love, quarterback; Rex Shores and Jesse Walker, ends; Corra, center, and Schweitzer, halfback.

All of these positions will have to be filled by men of last year's second or third class. The Aggies have not joined the conference and will play any and all new students who may enter school this year.

During the six years Maddock coached the "U" team the Aggies never so much as scored against the university.
